

Crew Coordinator (fulltime)

Location: Serooskerke (Walcheren)

November 2023

Job Description

Are you enthusiastic about crew management and thrive in the challenges of overseeing global projects within the offshore industry? Are you passionate about contributing to a committed and dynamic team dedicated to achieving optimal results?

If so, we invite you to consider the role of Crew Coordinator in our organization.

As a Crew Coordinator, your primary responsibility will be to organize a highly efficient crew supply service for our offshore units. Your duties will include ensuring timely arrival of the crew members with all required documentation for the respective units.

This role demands proactive engagement, with a focus on delivering seamless and high-quality crewing and crew logistics services.

Additionally, you will play a key role in coordinating training programs, handling rescheduling tasks, and facilitating any necessary crew replacements.

If you are someone who thrives in a dynamic environment, we encourage you to apply and join our team.

Job Requirements

- Degree in HRM although substantial experience in a similar role will also be considered.
- Good communication skills in English, both oral and written, with the ability to effectively convey information and collaborate within a diverse team.
- Proven track record of experience in a comparable position.

What can we offer you?

OOS offers an international work environment with exciting challenges for students, young professionals and experienced people passionate about the offshore energy industry. Working for OOS means being part of a dedicated team where every member strives for the best team results.
